Jonathan B. Postel Service Award
2013 Honoree

Elizabeth Feinler

Jonathan B. Postel Service Award

For contributions to the early development and administration of the Internet through her leadership of the Network Information Center (NIC) for the ARPANET

Elizabeth “Jake” Feinler

Led the Network Information Center (NIC) for the ARPANET and Defense Data Network (DDN), which:

- Oversaw the use of Internet addresses
- Developed the first Internet “yellow-” and “white-” pages
- Managed the Host Naming Registry
- Developed the top-level domain-naming scheme of .com, .edu, .gov, .mil, .org, and .net, which is still in use today
